

IYMP Youth Advisory Circle

Volunteer Title:	Youth Advisory Circle
Expected Hours:	3 hours per month
Honorarium:	$500 to recognize valuable contributions
Start Date:	September 2026
Location:	Alberta

Organization Overview:

Ever Active is a registered national charity based in Alberta that is designed to assist schools in creating and sustaining healthy school communities. The Indigenous Youth Mentorship Program (IYMP) is one of Ever Active's after-school programs, where high school students become mentors for younger students. Together, they take part in fun activities, share healthy snacks, all while practicing sound principles in holistic health. IYMP is rooted in the teachings of the 4 R's and the Circle of Courage, which are education models developed by Indigenous scholars to guide culturally relevant programming.

What will the Youth Advisory Circle do?

- Inform IYMP programming by discussing topics like event planning, program structure, and health and wellness in relation to their lives and communities
- Engage in learning and conversation with Ever Active staff and fellow IYMP Indigenous mentors
- Attend monthly circle meetings
- Gain leadership experience by helping plan and implement 2 in person events alongside Ever Active staff

We are looking for youth who are...

- Aged 15-26 in Alberta
- Knowledgeable about or have experience with IYMP
- Able to coordinate travel for 3 separate in person events
- Passionate about community wellness, development, and mentorship
- Willing to share perspectives and opinions on priority topics such as event planning, program structure, and health and wellness in relation to their lives and communities
- Willing to plan, organize, and communicate

Ever Active is committed to equity in its policies, practices, and programs, while supporting diversity in its community, school, and work environments; Ever Active encourages qualified applicants of all backgrounds and abilities to apply for this position. Ever Active thanks all applicants for their interest, however only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.
